Our Company has 2 locations: Europe and USA. We charge you in your local currency and unless specified in your booking, there are absolutely no extra costs involved. However, a few banks/institutions give out cards for domestic uses and if you use such card for payment made for purchases on International portals they may charge you with a fee for International Transaction. This is, of course, beyond our control and therefore; we notify our customers to check with the bank upon foreign transaction fees before proceeding to our payment page
